

Newcastle Higher Community Council

Newcastle Higher Community Council currently has 5 vacancies for the role of Councillor. Aberkenfig ward has 2 vacancies, and the ward of Pen-y-Fai has 3 vacancies.

These vacancies will be filled through the process of co-option. Co-opted Councillors have the same rights and responsibilities as those Councillors who obtain office through election. All members of the community are welcome to apply. The Council is committed to achieving a balanced composition of Councillors that reflect the community of Pen Y Fai and Aberkenfig

Councillors are expected to attend the monthly meetings of the Council. These take place on the second Tuesday of each month (except August).

The role is varied and enables local people to use their skills and experience to enhance the work undertaken by the Council for the benefit of the community.

The position of Community Councillor does not attract any remuneration, but an allowance of £150 p.a. is payable towards expenses.

All current and co-opted Councillors will serve a term until May 2022 and may then choose to seek re-election.

Applications will be considered at the next Council meeting in February 2022.
